"2018 was a transformative year for TransEnterix, as we continued to drive the global commercial adoption of the Senhance System - both in terms of expanding our installed base as well as expanding the applicability of the Senhance System by increasing its indications for use, expanding the variety of instruments available with the Senhance System, and expanding into new geographies by receiving additional regulatory clearances," said Todd M. Pope, President and CEO of TransEnterix. "In 2019, we see a significant opportunity to leverage all of the progress we made in 2018 to continue to grow the adoption of the Senhance System globally."

Commercial and Clinical Update

In the quarter ended December 31, 2018, the Company sold five Senhance Systems, with three sold in EMEA (Europe, Middle East, and Africa), one in the U.S., and one in Asia.

Instrument Portfolio Expansion

Ultrasonic Instrument System

On October 1, 2018, the Company announced that it had received a CE Mark for its Senhance Ultrasonic Instrument System, and during the fourth quarter this system was commercially launched in CE Mark countries. Advanced energy devices, including ultrasonic devices, represent some of the most versatile and critical tools for surgeons in minimally invasive surgery. These instruments deliver controlled energy to effectively ligate and divide tissue, and minimize thermal injury to surrounding structures.

On January 15, 2019, the Company announced it had received FDA 510(k) clearance for its Senhance Ultrasonic System.

3mm Diameter Instrument Set

On October 11, 2018, the Company received FDA 510(k) clearance for 3 millimeter diameter Senhance System instruments, as well as additional 5 millimeter Senhance System instruments. The clearance of the 3 millimeter diameter instruments will allow the Senhance System to be used for microlaparoscopic surgeries, enabling surgeons to operate through smaller incisions considered virtually scarless for patients, supporting the Company's mission of advancing minimally invasive surgical capabilities within digital laparoscopy.

Articulating Instruments

The Company received CE Mark for its 5mm diameter articulating instruments during the fourth quarter of 2018.

The Company submitted its application for FDA 510(k) clearance for its 5mm diameter articulating instruments during the fourth quarter of 2018.

Expansion of Geographic Regulatory Approvals

The Company received Taiwanese FDA approval for the Senhance System instruments during the fourth quarter. This follows the approval of the Senhance System in the second quarter of 2018.

Acquisition Agreement with MST

On October 31, 2018, the Company announced the closing of the acquisition of substantially all of the assets of MST Medical Surgery Technologies Ltd. ("MST"), an Israel-based medical technology company. MST is a leader in the field of surgical technology, having developed a software-based image analytics platform powered by advanced visualization, scene recognition, artificial intelligence, machine learning and data analytics.

The addition of MST's technology, IP portfolio and R&D team will support and accelerate TransEnterix's vision to leverage its Senhance System to deliver digital laparoscopy, thereby increasing control in the surgical environment and reducing surgical variability. The acquisition also provides immediate access to an established R&D center in Israel with a core team of experienced engineers.

The non-GAAP financial measures for the three and twelve months ended December 31, 2018 and 2017 provide management with additional insight into the Company's results of operations from period to period without non-recurring and non-cash charges, and are calculated using the following adjustments:

a) Gain from sale of SurgiBot assets relates to amounts received from Great Belief International Limited in excess of the carrying amount of the assets sold.

b) Intangible assets that are amortized consist of developed technology and purchased patent rights recorded at cost and amortized over 5 to 10 years.

c) Contingent consideration in connection with the acquisition of the Senhance System in 2015 is recorded as a liability and is the estimate of the fair value of potential milestone payments related to business acquisitions. Contingent consideration is measured at fair value using a discounted cash flow model utilizing significant unobservable inputs including the probability of achieving each of the potential milestones and an estimated discount rate associated with the risks of the expected cash flows attributable to the various milestones. Significant increases or decreases in any of the probabilities of success or changes in expected timelines for achievement of any of these milestones would result in a significantly higher or lower fair value of these milestones, respectively, and commensurate changes to the associated liability. The contingent consideration is revalued at each reporting period and changes in fair value are recognized in the consolidated statements of operations and comprehensive loss.

d) Acquisition related costs were incurred in connection with the MST purchase agreement and consist of legal, accounting, and other costs.

e) In connection with the Senhance acquisition, the Company recorded an accrual in 2015 third quarter for potential assessment of additional transfer fees. In September 2018, the Company determined that the accrual was no longer required and reversed the accrual.

f) The Company's Series B Warrants are measured at fair value using a simulation model which takes into account, as of the valuation date, factors including the current exercise price, the expected life of the warrant, the current price of the underlying stock, its expected volatility, holding cost and the risk-free interest rate for the term of the warrant. The warrant liability is revalued at each reporting period or upon exercise and changes in fair value are recognized in the consolidated statements of operations and comprehensive loss.

g) In May 2018, in connection with its entrance into the Hercules Loan Agreement, the Company repaid its existing loan and security agreement with Innovatus Life Sciences Lending Fund I, LP. The Company recognized a loss of $1.4 million on the extinguishment of notes payable which is included in interest expense on the consolidated statement of operations and comprehensive loss for the twelve months ended December 31, 2018. In May 2017, in connection with its entrance into the Innovatus Loan Agreement, the Company repaid its then-existing credit facility with Silicon Valley Bank and Oxford Finance LLC. The Company recognized a loss of $308,000 on the extinguishment of notes payable which is included in interest expense on the consolidated statement of operations and comprehensive loss for the twelve months ended December 31, 2017.
